FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lohre & Associates relocates its headquarters to Blue Ash, Ohio

Blue Ash, Ohio – Industrial marketing and advertising agency, Lohre & Associates, announces it relocates its headquarters to Blue Ash, Ohio to better accommodate its growing team. The new offices, which include more space for employees, offers a great backdrop for the teams ongoing operations.

"The new offices not only provide our employees the benefit of a centralized location, but the space is ideal for creativity to flourish," says Scott Hasson, VP of Sales & Marketing. "The new office layout allows freer collaboration and interaction between our staff."

The transition to Blue Ash grants Lohre & Associates closer proximity to many current and potential industrial clients. This important step offers new growth opportunities and allows the agency to develop and expand in the immediate future.

The advertising industry recently has developed new, advanced techniques that Lohre & Associates integrates as part of its services. Lohre & Associates capitalizes on the latest methods for clients to reach their customers through digital ads and website technology. Fulfilling client needs to meet and exceed their goals is how Lohre & Associates adds value.
